SCIENCE BOWL TEAM FROM DANIEL WRIGHT JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL CAPTURES REGIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP, ADVANCES AGAIN TO NATIONAL SCIENCE BOWL

The Science Bowl Team from Daniel Wright Junior High School competed with 13 other middle school teams and captured the championship at the Regional Science Bowl held at Argonne National Laboratory on Friday, February 7 and Saturday, February 8, 2014. The Daniel Wright Science Bowl Team was comprised of the following students: David Liang (grade 8), Conrad Oberhaus (grade 8), James Wei (grade 8), Haoyang Yu (grade 8), and Jeremy Yu (grade 8). Mrs. Sophia Capelli of Lake Forest, Illinois serves as the coach for the Science Bowl Academic Team.

"Argonne is excited to be a regional host site for the National Middle School Science Bowl competition for the northern Illinois region which includes: Cook County (west of Harlem Ave), Lake, DuPage, Will, Kane, and Grundy Counties." As the winner of the academic regional competition, the team from Daniel Wright Junior High School advances to the National Science Bowl in Washington, D.C. from April 24-28, 2014. The National Science Bowl includes both an academic competition as well as an electric car race and design competition. This is the third time in four years (and fourth time in nine years) a team from Daniel Wright will be part of the National Science Bowl events.

Daniel Wright Junior High School is part of Lincolnshire-Prairie View School District 103, and is nationally recognized for excellence in education. Daniel Wright serves students in grades 5-8 who reside in School District 103, which is located in Lake County, Illinois. School District 103's mission is "to provide innovative learning experiences which empower each student to excel and make a difference in a diverse and interconnected world."
